The Government of Morocco responded to the humanitarian crisis in Haiti by committing to transport at its own expense two C-130 aircraft containing 20 metric tons of relief supplies and medicine, valued at more than USD 1 million, to Port au Prince. Embassy Rabat has been in frequent contact with the Ministries of Defense and Foreign Affairs to facilitate delivery and, per reftels, to express our gratitude for Morocco's quick, generous response. We understand that Morocco's two C-130s arrived in Haiti the afternoon of January 17 and successfully delivered the donations.
